Water quality notice

Testing in August found all samples within federal limits. No action is needed by residents.

Households with infants should use cold tap water for formula and run the tap for thirty seconds first. Free test kits are available at City Hall until 30 November.